

Thaw Needs a Thrashing.

Harry Thaw, the well known Pittsburg degenerate, is again in the prints. This time he is charged with abducting and mistreating a boy of good family in Kansas City. Thaw lured the boy to New York, and taking him to his room in a hotel, whipped him severely with a whip.

Thaw seems to be rather fond of using a whip. The cries of his victim under the lash appeal to his aesthetic emotions, no doubt. It developed during his trial for the murder of Stanford White that he had been in the habit of enticing chorus girls and other girls to his rooms in New York boarding houses and whipping them with a whip which he kept handy.

Possibly a dose of his own medicine would do Thaw some good. From fifty to a hundred lashes on the bare back, with a black-snake whip in the hand of a man with a strong right arm and an ear attuned to the yells of a fellow who is getting what is coming to him, might not be time and effort altogether wasted.

If not that, then a jail sentence of eleven months and twenty-nine days, at hard labor, would be the next best thing, if they can not send Thaw to the penitentiary for his latest performance. There is bound to be a more or less efficacious remedy for what ails that pampered fool, if he is not crazy enough to be in the asylum, and the New York authorities ought to be able to find it and apply it.—Bristol Herald Courier.

Mistletoe and Holly.

Druids regarded religiously the mistletoe, which they called "All Heal" and offered it on their altars. They decorated for their altars. They decorated for their altars with all kinds of green plants. The church adopted this custom, but the mistletoe was purposely omitted by reason of its figuring in pagan religious rites.

Another reason given is that in olden times its use was abandoned in church decorations because it set the young folks to reading the marriage service, and the holly was substituted to indicate the dark monotony of matrimony and the many thorns with which it is beset.—Ex.

Inactivity Causes Constipation.

Lack of exercise in the winter is a frequent cause of constipation. You feel heavy, dull and listless, your complexion is sallow and pimply, and energy at low ebb. Clean up this condition at once with Dr. King's New Life Pills, a mild laxative that relieves the congested intestines without griping. A dose before retiring will assure you a full and easy movement in the morning. 25c. at your Druggist.

The Christian in Calamity.

If a man's religion is ever worth anything to him in the world, it is of surpassing value in the day of adversity. The darker the cloud the, the brighter the rainbow of hope that spans and irradiates it. In the summer of 1916 when the floods tore Western North Carolina literally to pieces, there were many amongst a stricken people who found their chief consolation in the spiritual verities which are unseen and eternal. And elsewhere—in fact, everywhere—in this world of accidents, droughts, storms and floods, it is the Christian's privilege to be happy with hope. Aptly did Mr. J. M. Beaty of the Smithfield Herald quote from one of the prophets of old: "Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no fruit; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls; yet will I rejoice in the Lord. I will joy in the God of my salvation."—Biblical Recorder.

Different Kinds Of Coughs.

Colds lead to different kinds of coughs—"drycough," "winter cough," la grippe cough, bronchial cough, asthmatic cough, and racking, painful cough to raise choking phlegm. Enos Halcott, Paoli, Ind., writes: "I continually coughed, could hardly sleep. Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me, curing my cough entirely."
